THE ROTARY GLOBAL HISTORY FELLOWSHIP

Written and compiled by Rotarians to preserve the History and Values and Philosophy of the Rotary Movement.

The idea of a Rotary Global History Fellowship was germinated in the year 2000 when the Founding Committee of Rotarians John Selway, Eddie Blender, Geri Appel, Matts Ingemanson and Dick McKay met and agreed to work together to that endeavor.

This exciting effort, begun in October 2000 and authorized by Rotary International in October 2003 presently serves, free of charge, 80,000 visitors each month.

An additional 30,000 also read or hear our weekly features "What Paul Harris Said", "Why I am a Rotarian" and "Our Foundation Newsletter".

The website contains thousands of articles on the history of Rotary compiled and archived in over 2500 pages.
